DEFINITIONS

AMATEUR GOLFER

An “amateur golfer” is one who plays the game as a non-remunerative or non-profit making sport and who does not receive remuneration for teaching golf or for other activities because of golf skill or reputation, except as provided in the Rules.

COMMITTEE

The Amateur Status Committee of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

GOLF SKILL OR REPUTATION

Generally, an amateur golfer is only considered to have golf skill if he has had competitive success at the local level or competes at the national level. Golf reputation can only be gained through golf skill and does not include prominence for service to the game of golf as an administrator. It is a matter for the RCGA to decide whether a particular amateur golfer has golf skill or reputation.

INSTRUCTION

“Instruction” covers teaching the physical aspects of playing golf, i.e., the actual mechanics of swinging a golf club and hitting a golf ball.

JUNIOR GOLFER

An amateur golfer who has not reached their 19th birthday prior to the last day of an event.

PRIZE VOUCHER

A “prize voucher” is a certificate issued by the committee in charge of a competition for the purchase of goods from a Professional’s shop or other retail source.

Rule 1 - Amateurism

1-1 GENERAL

An amateur golfer must play the game and conduct himself in accordance with the Rules.

1-2 AMATEUR STATUS

Amateur Status is a universal condition of eligibility for playing in golf competitions as an amateur golfer. A person who acts contrary to the Rules may forfeit his status as an amateur golfer and as a result will be ineligible to play in amateur competitions (Rule 9-2d).

Any organizer or sponsor of an amateur competition or a golf competition involving amateur golfers who permits, encourages, or condones actions contrary to the Rules bears the responsibility for which an amateur golfer may be penalized.

1-3 PURPOSE AND SPIRIT OF THE RULES

The purpose and the spirit of the Rules is to maintain the distinction between amateur golf and professional golf and keep the amateur game as free as possible from the abuses which may follow from uncontrolled sponsorship and financial incentive. It is considered necessary to safeguard amateur golf, which is largely self-regulating with regard to the Rules of play and handicapping, so that it may be fully enjoyed by all amateur golfers.

1-4 DOUBT AS TO RULES

Any person who wishes to be an amateur golfer and who is in doubt as to whether taking a proposed course of action is permitted under the Rules, should consult the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Any organizer or sponsor of an amateur golf competition or a competition involving amateur golfers who is in doubt as to whether a proposal is in accordance with the Rules should consult the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Rule 8 - Procedure for Enforcement

8-1 ADVISORY OPINIONS

An amateur golfer, organizer, or sponsor who considers that any action they are proposing to take might endanger their amateur status may, in writing, submit particulars to the Director of Amateur Status of the Royal Canadian Golf Association for advice. If dissatisfied with that advice, the amateur golfer, organizer, or sponsor may request that the matter be referred to the Committee for decision.

8-2 DECISION ON A BREACH

Whenever information of a possible act contrary to the Rules of Amateur Status by a player claiming to be an amateur shall come to the attention of the Royal Canadian Golf Association, the Director of Amateur Status, or other designated official, shall investigate to the extent it believes to be appropriate. If ample precedent exists, the Director of Amateur Status is authorized by the Committee to make decisions on acts contrary to the Definition of an amateur golfer. If ample precedent does not exist, the Director of Amateur Status shall complete its investigation of the relevant facts and submit the results of its investigation, with or without a recommended resolution, to the Committee.

Each case will be investigated to the extent deemed appropriate by the Committee and considered on its merits. The decision of the Committee shall be final, subject to an Appeal as provided in these Rules.

8-3 ENFORCEMENT

Upon a final decision of the Committee that a person has breached the Rules, the Committee may declare the amateur status of the person forfeited or require the person to refrain or desist from specified actions as a condition of retaining amateur status.

The Committee shall use its best endeavors to ensure that the person is notified and may notify any interested golf association and golf club of its decision.

8-4 APPEALS COMMITTEE

If dissatisfied with the decision of the Committee, the person may, by written notice to the Royal Canadian Golf Association within thirty (30) days after being notified of the decision, appeal to an Appeals Committee designated by the Royal Canadian Golf Association for that purpose. The person shall be given reasonable notice of the date of the appeal hearing as determined by the Appeals Committee and shall be entitled to present the case for the appeal in person or by representation or in writing. The decision of the Appeals Committee shall be final. Pending the hearing of the appeal, the status of the person shall be in accordance with the terms as prescribed by the Committee and these Rules.

Rule 9 - Reinstatement

9-1 GENERAL

The Committee has the sole power to reinstate a person to amateur status or to deny reinstatement, subject to an Appeal as provided in these Rules. Each application for reinstatement shall be considered on its merits.

9-2 APPLICATIONS FOR REINSTATEMENT

In considering an application for reinstatement, the Committee shall normally be guided by the following principles:

(a) Awaiting Reinstatement

The Professional holds an advantage over the amateur golfer by reason of having devoted himself to the game as his profession. Other persons infringing the Rules also obtain advantages not available to the amateur golfer. They do not necessarily lose such advantages merely by deciding to cease infringing the Rules. Therefore, an applicant for reinstatement to amateur status shall undergo a period awaiting reinstatement as prescribed by the Committee.

(b) Period Awaiting Reinstatement

- (i) The period awaiting reinstatement is normally related to the period the applicant was in breach. However, no applicant is normally eligible for reinstatement until he has conducted himself in accordance with the Rules for a period of at least one year.
- (ii) The Committee reserves the right to extend or to shorten such a period. Longer periods will normally be required of applicants who have been in breach more than five years. Players of national golf skill or reputation who have been in breach for more than five years will not normally be eligible for reinstatement.
- (iii) The period awaiting reinstatement shall start from the first day of the next full month following the date of application or such earlier date as the Committee may determine.

(c) One Reinstatement

A person shall not normally be reinstated more than once.

(d) Status While Awaiting Reinstatement

During the period awaiting reinstatement an applicant for reinstatement shall conform to the Definition of an amateur golfer.

He shall not be eligible to enter competitions limited to amateurs except that he may enter competitions solely among members of a club of which he is a member, subject to the approval of the club; but he may not represent such club against other clubs. He may also, without prejudicing his application, enter, as an applicant for reinstatement, competitions that are not limited to amateurs but shall not accept any prize reserved for an amateur.

9-3 PROCEDURE FOR APPLICANTS

Each application for reinstatement must be submitted on the form prescribed by the Committee and shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee set by the Committee from time to time. In all cases the application must be approved by an officer of the provincial golf association having jurisdiction in the area that the applicant resides, as well as by an official at the head office of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association.

9-4 APPEALS PROCEDURE

A person affected by a decision made by the Committee of the Royal Canadian Golf Association in respect of reinstatement of Amateur Status, may raise an appeal of that decision. He may, by written notice to the Royal Canadian Golf Association within thirty (30) days after being notified of the decision, appeal to an Appeals Committee designated by the Royal Canadian Golf Association for that purpose. The person shall be given reasonable notice of the date of the appeal hearing as determined by the Appeals Committee and shall be entitled to present the case for the appeal in person or by representation in writing. The decision of the Appeals Committee shall be final. Pending the hearing of the appeal, the status of the person shall be in accordance with the terms as prescribed by the Committee and these Rules.

Rule 10 - Committee Decision

10-1 COMMITTEE'S DECISION

The Committee's decision is final, subject to an Appeal as provided in Rules 8-4 and 9-4.

ROYAL CANADIAN GOLF ASSOCIATION POLICY ON GAMBLING

The Rules of Amateur Status state that an amateur golfer is one who plays the game as a non-remunerative or non-profit making sport. Amateur golf should be played for its own sake and not for profit. When gambling motives are introduced, problems can arise which threaten the integrity of the game.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association reminds its member golf clubs, golf associations and other sponsors of golf competitions of their responsibilities to conduct all competitions in accordance with the Rules of Amateur Status. Types of gambling such as (1) Calcutta's, (2) other auction pools, and (3) any other forms of gambling organized for general participation, or permitting participants to bet on someone other than themselves or their teams are a violation of the Rules of Amateur Status.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association does not object to participation in informal and unorganized wagering among individual golfers or teams of golfers, when participation is limited to the golfers, the golfers only wager on themselves or their teams and the primary purpose is the playing of the game for enjoyment. Golfers who participate in events in which cash is otherwise awarded to golfers may be deemed to be playing for prize money within the meaning of Rule 3-1 of the Rules; unless, prior to such participation they irrevocably waive their right in writing to such cash.

Attention is drawn to Rule 7 relating to conduct detrimental to the game under which persons can forfeit their amateur status.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association will deny amateur status, entry in Royal Canadian Golf Association championships and membership on Royal Canadian Golf Association teams for international competitions to persons whose activities in connection with golf gambling are contrary to the Rules of Amateur Status.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association reminds its member clubs, and all golf associations, to take a similar position in connection with their tournaments and championships and membership on their teams.
